Student organizations are initiated, developed and run by their student members. Advisors provide support and guidance, while students provide the leadership and initiative for programs, events and activities, and make decisions regarding the organization. Students manage the finances of the organization, including being the signatories on financial accounts. Advisors serve as an important resource for student organizations, providing the foundation for long-term stability, growth and development. The specific responsibilities of the advisor may vary depending upon the nature of the student organization. Each advisor’s personal style will also affect the degree of involvement he or she has with the group. It is important that the student organization’s leadership and the advisor work together to develop a mutually agreed upon understanding of the role and expectations of the advisor.

Clery Act Role and Responsibility

Due to the responsibilities involved in advising student organizations, advisors of student organizations are considered by law to be a Campus Security Authority (CSA) for the university. As a CSA, advisors have a legal obligation to file a report with the Chief of Police/Director of Public Safety of reported criminal activity using the Campus Security Authority Reporting Form. This is to ensure statistical inclusion of all crimes specified by the Jeanne Clery Disclosure of Campus Security Policy and Campus Crime Statistics Act ("Clery Act") in the University’s Annual Security Report when those crimes occur on or near University Property, including on-campus property, property immediately adjacent to the campus, and off-campus property owned or controlled by the University.

The Campus Security Authority Reporting Form is available at the following link: http://www.vpaf.uni.edu/pubsaf/csa_report.shtml.

Faculty/staff members who serve as an advisor at any time during an academic year should enroll in the UNI eLearning CSA Training Course, available at the following link: https://www.uni.edu/elearning/. For more information regarding the roles and responsibilities of CSA’s, please contact the Department of Public Safety, 273-2712.
